STEPHEN MINISTRY

Training Update

Here’s what our Stephen Ministers are learning this week:

Session Fifteen—Helping Suicidal Persons Get the Help They Need

Stephen Ministers are never knowingly assigned to someone who is or might be suicidal, but they may nonetheless find themselves in a caring relationship with someone who is suicidal. If so, they need to know what to do. In this session, our Stephen Ministers explore how to determine the level of risk and how to refer the care receiver to a qualified professional. Please continue to pray for our Stephen Minister Trainees as they continue to enhance their caregiving skills.

JESUS HAS COME TO SET ME FREE

One year ago, April 2017, International Justice Mission and Ghanaian police conducted together the largest rescue operation to date—finally rescuing 30 children and one young adult and arresting 11 suspects who had been profiting from forcing children to work long hours in dangerous conditions on Lake Volta. (The first case is now in the court system.)

On one of the largest man-made lakes in the world, more than half of the thousands of children working on Lake Volta are believed to be trafficked [modern day slavery]. We cannot imagine the suffering seen in the lives of children who have been forced to leave their childhoods for long days of hard labor on fishing boats. The majority are 10 years old or younger. Some of them can barely swim. Children injured while doing this dangerous work often go untreated. They can expect no compassion from their owners. In some cases, boat masters maintain their control through violent beatings and withholding food.

After their rescue, on their way to the aftercare shelter where they are cared for until they are able to safely return to their families, one sweet 10-year-old voice burst out with song: “I’ve got joy, joy down in my heart; I’ve got joy, joy down in my heart.”

He was soon joined by the rest of the children, singing their new truth, “Look what the Lord has done for me; Jesus has come to set me free; I’ve got joy, joy down in my heart.”

Our joy is that after prayerful consideration, First Church made a 2018 financial pledge to help rescue boys from slavery in the fishing industry on Lake Volta in Ghana, Africa. If you would like to partner with IJM to bring justice and end slavery on Lake Volta, you may use the envelope that was in your March Giving Envelopes, or mark your check IJM, or go to firstchurch.cc and click on “donate” and choose International Justice Mission. Please prayerfully consider your part as Jesus’ hands to set children free.

Sermon Outline

Fired Up!

Luke 24:1-8 and Luke 24:28-32

- I. Because the Resurrection is _____, there is no place beyond the reach of God's redeeming grace.
  - II. It is not the _____ of Jesus that fire people up, but the _____ of Jesus.
  - III. Only Christianity presents _____ as a person.
  - IV. The God they tried to _____ ... may instead _____ among us... leaving behind an empty tomb.
- I. Jesus still walks beside us... makes our hearts _____... fires us up.

Life Reflection:

When it comes to Jesus, would you describe yourself as feeling more "fired" or "fired up" about Jesus? Why? Am I more familiar with the principles or the person of Jesus? What would it take for the Resurrected Christ to burn within my heart? Where might Jesus be walking beside me and I simply have not seen Him there? What would help open my eyes to the personal, Risen Lord? Would you pray: "Lord... through your Holy Spirit... fire me up to the reality of you."

Scripture Reflection: Luke 24:32

32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

We are so very glad you are here! Especially if you are newer to First Church we thank you for joining us in today's celebration. Please know we would love to continue experiencing life in Christ with you as we seek to live out our vision of Transformation in Christ: Changing Lives Inside and Out. We believe that lives are transformed as we build relationships first with Christ the risen One and with each other!

First Church celebrates in a number of weekly worship experiences throughout the week that we invite you to share in. Please see the newsletter today (or our website) for a full listing of the worship experiences that we have on Sunday mornings, Sunday evenings, and Wednesday nights. Beyond worship, there are many small groups and community groups (that we call our Acts Network) to get plugged into for every age group... from young children and our youth to our families and senior citizens.

We seek to be a church that is beautifully diverse, filled with rugged disciples, humbly powerful, and here for those not yet here in the love of Jesus Christ.

We believe the more we see these elements lived out, the more our lives will be transformed and the more we can impact our wonderful city!

We hope we can get to know you better in the days ahead.

Thank you again for sharing in this special, holy, wonderful, life-filled day with us! It is my great joy to serve the Risen Christ with you... Let us experience the Resurrection together!

In Christ,
Pastor Matt
